YETI

Yeti, you are one snowy white beast.
I've searched for you in the West and the East.

Your big footprints, I've found left in the snow.
Tell me exactly, which way I should go.

I really hope soon one day we can meet.
I want to see your giant hands and feet.

I'm sure your shaggy, wooly fur keeps you warm.
During those long, harsh, cold winter storms.

I know you are lonely and need a new friend.
As soon as I find you, your loneliness will end.
