THE CASE OF THE MISSING MARSHMALLOW BUNNIES

It was early spring, and Ms. Drury was getting ready to surprise her class with a fun spring themed activity. She went to the store and bought different colored marshmallow bunnies. She was so excited to complete the activities with her students using these sweet treats. The night before the activities, she sorted and prepped the candy for the next day.

When she arrived at school, she saw her classroom door open. She went inside and looked around. She noticed that her marshmallows were missing. She was so disappointed that she couldn't complete the fun activities she had planned. She needs your help.

Can you help Ms. Drury find out who took the marshmallows?

CONGRATULATIONS!
You solved the case of the missing marshmallow bunnies! It turns out Rowdy Raccoon was the culprit. He ran to the grocery store at sunset to grab some graham crackers and chocolate. He planned to have a bonfire so he could make some delicious s'mores. Luckily, he was feeling guilty so he brought them back to share with all of us.

OH NO!
Someone stole the MARSHMALLOW BUNNIES!
