STORY, VIDEO & POSTERS

Happy CAMPERS
It's a GOOD DAY
to have a GOOD DAY

WELCOME

THE CASE OF THE MISSING PENCILS
It was the night before the first day of school and Mr. McCarthy was preparing for the next morning. He had passed out the morning activities, put name tags on the perfect story to read, prepared a fun math game, and set out a stack of brand new pencils for his students. He was so excited to meet his new first graders at Kindergarten Elementary School. He knew it was going to be an amazing day. He turned off the lights and went home to get a sleep before the big day.

The next morning, he greeted his students huge smile. He helped them all unpack their books and gave them the directions for the morning. Suddenly, he noticed he had a problem. The pencils were missing. He knew he had put a stack of brand new pencils on his desk the night before. Mr. MCC needs your help! His students have nothing to write and they are patiently waiting to begin.

CONGRATULATIONS!
Congratulations! You solved the case of the missing pencils. Fancy Fox sharpened the pencils yesterday and noticed none of the pencils were sharpened. He knew the post office had a great pencil sharpener, so he went there and sharpened them for the class. Thanks Fancy Fox!
